Consideration of Grievance

1. The Faculty Adjudication Committee (FAC) spoke with Louis A. Day, Alumni Professor Emeritus, about his recollection of events described in the grievance/rebuttal.
2. The FAC spoke with Cindy Carter, Professional-in-Residence, about her recollection of events described in the grievance/rebuttal.
3. The FAC reviewed vote tallies recorded in minutes of the September faculty meeting. The FAC continued to look for broadcasts announcing voting options in advance of September faculty meeting. The FAC reviewed the various standing committees and the extent to which they were involved, or could have been involved, in the events leading up to the dispute. The FAC continued to deliberate over the policies regarding voting prescribed in the faculty handbook.
4. The FAC reviewed its timeline. The goal is to hold interviews through end of March, then turn to writing report in April.
5. The FAC voted to invite Professor Lance Porter to an upcoming meeting.
 - a. Motion: Legoria.
 - b. Seconded: Shihadeh.
 - c. Approved by acclamation.
6. The committee voted to share rebuttal with complainants and solicit a final response.
 - a. Motion: Dooley
 - b. Seconded: Shihadeh.
 - c. Approved by acclamation
7. The committee did not vote approve minutes from previous meeting; this will be taken up at next meeting.
